

THE TRIBUNE.

LATER FROM THE ISLAND OF CUBA.—From the Editor of the Noticias de Ambrosio Mundo we have received a file of the Diario de la Marina of Havana of the 20th and 26th inclusive. They contain very little intelligence of importance.

In the paper of April 25th are given extracts from a paper published in the city of Villa Clara in the Pasto de San Diego. The drouth has been so great that planters have been forced to cut down their Royal Palms whose tops secrete whatever moisture may be in the atmosphere, to save their domestic from dying of thirst.

The strange condition of the atmosphere has produced a mortality among the horses and cattle which had nearly been equalled. To add to the distress in that postode the large concarales or cane plantations of Messrs. Thompson and Duval on the road between Villa Clara and Sogata Grande had taken fire and nothing but the united efforts of the neighborhood could save the whole porfolio from a general conflagration.

The port of the Havana during the past season has been unusually active. In the month of March of the last year there were exported from the port 42,308 cases of sugar, in the same month of the present year 76,639, that is to say 34,131 cases more.

The exportation of coffee also has greatly increased. This year it amounts 110,857 arrobas, and in March of the past year were exported only 86,156 arrobas.

The number of arrivals also has been greater than in the same month any preceding year, a mounting 175 vessels of all classes, 23 more than in March 1843.

The number of passengers has diminished last year, 667 having arrived in this month, while this year only 563 have landed.

The great dryness of the season appears to have had some influence on the human system, since in the Havana, during the month of March, 1843, ninety persons more died than during March of the past year, viz: in 1843 the number of deaths was 385; in the same month of the current year 473, a great increase, amounting to three per cent.
